JOLANDA "JO" JONES

IS ON THE SIDE OF HOUSTON TAXPAYERS

Now, more than ever, Houston taxpayers need a champion who will fight for us. That's why Council Member Jolanda "Jo" Jones has made it her highest priority to protect essential city services without raising taxes.

▶ SAVING MILLIONS FOR TAXPAYERS

As Chair of City Council's Housing Committee, Jo has been a champion in the fight to stop waste and mismanagement in the city's Housing Department that put tens of millions of tax dollars at risk and could have threatened vital services like public safety.

▶ A WATCHDOG ON SPENDING

When city officials wanted approval to purchase one paving truck for over $500,000, Jo researched the request and found the same truck from a different vendor for half the price—plus a 15 percent discount.

▶ A CHAMPION FOR COMMON SENSE GOVERNMENT

Jo asked tough questions when she saw the city replacing expensive vehicles without taking care of them properly — and fought for a new maintenance system to extend their useful life. And Jo is working to get more out of every public safety dollar with regional cooperation between policing agencies and more neighborhood-oriented policing.

Jo hears every day from Houston taxpayers who are struggling in this challenging economy.

As someone who grew up in poverty and had to stretch every dollar, Jo is hard-wired to avoid waste at every turn.
